50X1 Ammunition Storage in Stepanov

1. [redacted]
[redacted] the 1st Air Technical Division in Prague sent a teletype order to the Secret Control Office at Mlada requesting that the 22nd Airfield Battalion pick up ammunition from the ammunition storage in Stepanov (N 50-32, E 13-52). [redacted]
50X1 [redacted] mostly bombs and ammunition for sub-machine guns were picked up in Stepanov.
[redacted] 50X1

Armament Plant in Tuchomysl

2. [redacted] at the end of January 1955 the Secret
50X1 Control Office received another teletype order from the 1st Air Technical Division in Prague to send two airmen who were masons in civilian life to an armament plant in Tuchomysl (N 50-39, E 13-57). A Corporal [redacted] and another airman were sent there immediately. Corporal [redacted] returned to Mlada Airfield after three months (the other airman was killed in an accident)
50X1 [redacted] a large part of the plant was built by the Germans during World War II and presently was being enlarged. Only military personnel worked on the construction. Source was told that part of the plant was in operation, but he had no information on what was being produced there.
